

The Answers (with some explanations)

Road & rail

- 1) Saloon: -o- inside salon
- 2) Estate: We also accepted 'surrey'
- 3) Tandem: Hidden in Stan demonstrating
- 4) Sedan chair: anagram of 'in a crashed'
- 5) Train
- 6) Locomotive: loco = crazy, motive = reason for. They had a 'tender' for the coal
- 7) Trolley: off your trolley = crazy
- 8) Low loader: owl inside anagram of (Spanish) 'el' and 'road'
- 9) Howdah: anagram of 'who had' = a seat with a canopy, on an elephant's back
- 10) Orient Express: ex press = former journalist
- 11) Phaeton: anagram of 'one path'
- 12) Articulated lorry: lory = parrot
- 13) Charabanc: hidden in 'rich Arab ancestors'
- 14) Quad: squadron without 'rons'
- 15) Hearse: hidden in 'the arsenic'
- 16) Barouche: 'ouch' inside 'bare'
- 17) Litter – but we also accepted 'pickup'
- 18) Unicycle: students go to 'uni', cycle = go round. 'carousel' not accepted - doesn't explain 'students'
- 19) Penny farthing
- 20) Hobby horse: kind of bicycle without pedals, that one propelled with one's feet on the ground. 'skateboard' not acceptable (doesn't explain 'obsession').
- 21) Streetcar (as in A Streetcar Named Desire by Tennessee Williams)
- 22) Pantehnicon: = removal van; anagram of innocent chap

Makes & models

- 23) Passat
- 24) Morris Minor: anagram
- 25) Land Rover
- 26) Chevrolet: anagram of 'tech lover'
- 27) Trabant: hidden in 'extra banter'
- 28) DeLorean: anagram
- 29) Buick: -i- (one) inside 'buck'
- 30) 2CV: French 'deux chevaux'
- 31) Ford Mustang: hidden in 'Oxford . Must Anglicans'
- 32) Nissan Pulsar: anagram
- 33) Citroen Berlingo: anagram
- 34) Renault Twingo: anagram
- 35) Trojan Horse: troop carrier as in Greek mythology, and also a computer virus to 'disorder' your files

Vehicles that fly

- 36) Sputnik: anagram
- 37) Lunar module: anagram
- 38) Helicopter: anagram
- 39) Apollo XI: led by Buzz Aldrin
- 40) Concorde: 'cord' inside 'cone'

- 41) Chitty Chitty Bang Bang: 'chatty Bing' with vowels disordered, twice (recurring)
- 42) Soyuz: initial letter of each word

Vessels on water

- 43) Minesweeper: pit = mine, sweeper = role on football pitch
- 44) HMS Victory: odd letters of HaMiSh + v (versus) IC (Imperial College) + Tory
- 45) HMS Endeavour: Captain Cook's ship. HMS = anagram of 'mash' minus the -a-
- 46) Calypso: name of Cousteau's ship and also name of Caribbean song
- 47) Cutty Sark: anagram (in dry dock in Greenwich)
- 48) Mary Rose: Mary as in Virgin Mary. Tudor ship raised from seabed in 1982
- 49) Coracle: C = Catholic, + oracle (Delphic, for example)
- 50) Lifeboat: anagram of 'if able to'
- 51) HMS Beagle: even letters of cHiMpS + B (British) + eagle. Ship Darwin sailed on.
- 52) Catamaran: Tamara in 'can' (American slang for gaol)
- 53) Dinghy: H inside 'dingy'
- 54) Junk
- 55) Kayak: palindrome – reads backwards & forwards. Nanook = fictional Inuit
- 56) Pirogue: pi = pious, saintly; + rogue. Simple boat hewn out of tree trunk. 'clipper' doesn't satisfy the first part of the clue, whatever Answerbank says
- 57) Kon Tiki: Thor Heyerdahl's balsawood raft
- 58) Coaster: like a beer mat – goes under your drink
- 59) HMS Belfast: initial letters of Having Major Surgery + bel(l) + fast

Travellers

- 60) Tereshkova
- 61) Yuri Gagarin
- 62) Marco Polo: anagram
- 63) Francis Chichester: (Pope) Francis + chic + Hester

Aids to transport

- 64) AA: Alcoholics Anonymous and Automobile Association
- 65) RAC: 'car' reversed
- 66) Guidebook
- 67) Driving licence
- 68) Boarding pass
- 69) Sat-nav: anagram of 'v.Satan'
- 70) Highway Code: high = smelly; whey sounds like (said to be) 'way'